My dear Sir

If you look inside the cover of ^{pt} III of Englands' Park. you will see a call for a renewed subscription.

That call you did not answer, & consequently I did not send you Parts IV & V. I have them for you, but, I think, you told me, not long ago,

that you had the five Parts of Engl. Parn.
which surprised me,
& I did not therefore
include Parts IV & V in my last parcel.

I will forward them
by Post tomorrow. The cost is 19/ & not 20/ as you supposed

Yours very sincerely
J. Payne Collier
J. W. Harlow Esq

My fingers are so cold that I can hardly write.
